FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

In response to identical legislation of this session (SB 348) the following entities issued the following fiscal impact statements:

Officials of the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department assume there could be minimal costs realized due to overtime cost related to testifying at hearings. Officials estimate cost at $11,000 annually.

Officials of the City of Springfield assume to have a civilian review board is optional and to extend current powers would have no fiscal impact.

Officials of the Kansas City Manager's Office assume no fiscal impact.

Officials of the City of St. Joseph assume no fiscal impact.

Officials of the Jefferson County and Franklin County Commissions assume no fiscal impact.

ASSUMPTION (continued)

Oversight assumes that current law grants authority but does not mandate cities and counties to create civilian review boards. Oversight assumes this proposal extends certain powers to those boards. Oversight assumes any cost to local governments would be discretionary.

Entities not responding are as follows: Boone, Cass, Taney, Johnson, Warren, Greene, Platte and Clay County Commissions.

FISCAL IMPACT - State Government	FY 2004 (10 Mo.)	FY 2005	FY 2006
	$0	$0	$0
FISCAL IMPACT - Local Government	FY 2004 (10 Mo.)	FY 2005	FY 2006
	$0	$0	$0

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

DESCRIPTION

This act extends powers to civilian review boards that investigate allegations of misconduct by local law enforcement officers. The powers granted in this act include: subpoena powers, administer oaths, require production of papers, records and documents, and the examination of witnesses.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
